HILTON LOS CABOS BEACH & GOLF RESORT ANNOUNCES THE COMPLETION OF ITS NEW ROOM REDESIGN

Los Cabos, Mexico – The Hilton Los Cabos Beach & Golf Resort today announced the completion of a dramatic remodeling of its 375 ocean-view guestrooms. Now under the ownership of Beny Alagem who also owns the world-famous Beverly Hilton, the resort’s newly unveiled guestrooms feature the artistry of world-class designers. This bold redesign initiative successfully repositions the Hilton to fill a niche in the luxury travel market, previously unavailable in Los Cabos.

“Our impressive aesthetic enhancements transcend the customary offerings of a large, brand-name hotel and provide us with the advantage of being able to offer an opulent vacation experience, previously only available at smaller properties in Los Cabos,” says Antonio Vera, Area Director of Sales & Marketing for Hilton Hotels Corporation in Mexico. “Now all travel consumers, including corporate groups, families, etc. will have the opportunity to experience at the Hilton the sophisticated elegance that they’ve come to expect when they visit a high-end destination such as Los Cabos.”

The richly styled guestrooms are the creation of renowned designer, Paul Duesing of Paul Duesing Partners, specialists in lifestyle design for high-end hotel properties, including One & Only Palmilla in Los Cabos, and The Palms in Turks & Caicos. This ambitious interior design project costs approximately $15,000 per room and features special touches by local artisans. Glowing painted plaster walls, sculpted headboards and antiqued hand-hewn cabinetry adorn each room with artistic traditions steeped in colonial Spanish heritage. Colorful and heavily embroidered fabrics impart a comfortable yet lavish feel. Richly hued marble baths highlighted by hand-painted ceramic bath accessories, Italian-made Mascioni 100% Egyptian cotton bed linens, and flat screen televisions add to the new décor’s sumptuous appeal.

The Hilton Los Cabos additionally reveals plans for the redesign of its restaurants as they continue to lay the groundwork for a complete transformation.
